

BETHANYHOUSE

Riveting Legal Romantic Suspense from a Practicing Attorney

- “Rachel Dylan knows the inside of a courtroom.”—Rick Acker, bestselling author of Death in the Mind’s Eye
- Twists together two court cases as the heroine is both prosecutor and witness
- Offers a satisfying blend of sigh-worthy romance and edge-of-your-seat suspense

Prosecutor Sophie Dawson’s first job in the White Collar division of the Fulton County D.A.’s office is to build a case against a local bank employee who may be cheating clients. But when circumstances beyond her control leave her as the only witness to a double homicide involving a vengeful gang, her world is turned upside down.

Former Atlanta police officer turned private security guard Cooper Knight is hired to ensure that Sophie is kept safe. But as threats escalate, they don’t know who they can trust.

Sophie is determined not to back down, but her bank case gets more complicated by the day, and the gang will stop at nothing to keep her from testifying. Sophie wants to take a stand for what’s right—but can Cooper, who is determined not to be distracted by their growing attraction, keep her safe so that she can finish her pursuit for justice?

Charming Historical Romance Novella Collection for the Value Buyer

- Three novellas from popular historical romance authors now available in print for the first time
- Approachable introduction to Connealy, Hunter, and Turano for the value-conscious buyer
- Delightful combination of authors known for their lovable characters, witty humor, and endearing romance

Three of Christian historical fiction's beloved authors come together in this romantic and humorous collection of novellas featuring prequels to their latest series. New and loyal fans alike will enjoy these novellas previously released only as ebooks. Connealy's "The Boden Birthright" journeys to the Old West, where ranch hand Chance Boden's determination to be his own boss is challenged by his employer's pretty daughter. Hunter's "A Lady of Esteem" follows a Regency-era young lady whose chance at love and reputation in society are threatened by a nasty rumor. Turano's "At Your Request" tells of a young woman who is humbled at her newly lowered status in society when she is reunited with the very man whose proposal she rejected.

- Award-winning author whose books are a must-read for inspirational romance fans
- “Wade starts this new series off strong, introducing characters that are easy to invest in.”—Publishers Weekly on True to You

Famously beautiful model Willow Bradford is taking a temporary break from her hectic schedule to work as the innkeeper at her family’s small-town bed-and-breakfast. She was enjoying the peace of her hometown, Merryweather, Washington, right up until she came face-to-face with Corbin Stewart, the man she loves to hate. A thoughtful rule-follower by nature, Willow threw caution to the wind four years ago when she entrusted her heart to Corbin—and suffered the consequences when it all fell apart.

Former NFL quarterback Corbin is forceful, charming, and accustomed to getting what he wants . . . except where Willow Bradford is concerned. Unable to forget her, he’s never stopped regretting what happened between them. When their paths unexpectedly cross again, he’s determined to make her give him a second chance.

When a decades-old missing persons case finds Corbin and Willow working together, they’re forced to confront their past and who they’ve become—and whether they can risk falling for one another all over again.

Hedlund's Acclaimed Orphan Train Series Rolls On!

- Hedlund has won the 2014 Carol Award, the 2016 Christy Award, and the 2016 Christian Book Award
- Gives a riveting glimpse into the life of a placing agent delivering orphans to new homes
- "A heart-stirring story of survival and love filled with memorable characters."—Booklist starred review of With You Always

Marianne Neumann has one goal in life: to find her lost younger sister, Sophie. When Marianne takes a job as a placing agent with the Children's Aid Society in 1858 New York, she not only hopes to give children a better life but seeks to discover whether Sophie ended up leaving the city on an orphan train.

Andrew Brady, her fellow agent on her first placing trip, is a former schoolteacher who has an easy way with the children—firm but tender and funny. Underneath his handsome charm, though, seems to linger a grief that won't go away—and a secret from his past that he keeps hidden. As the two team up placing orphans amid small railroad towns in Illinois, they find themselves growing ever closer . . . until a shocking tragedy threatens to upend all their work and change one of their lives forever.

Highly Anticipated New Regency Romance Series from Award-Winning Author

- "A fitting finale to the series and a lovely addition to the Regency genre."—Publishers Weekly starred review of An Inconvenient Beauty
- British-set historicals are a favorite among CBA and ABA readers alike
- First in a heartwarming new series about a home for abandoned children and the three women caring for them

When Katherine "Kit" FitzGilbert turned her back on London society more than a decade ago, she determined never to set foot in a ballroom again. But when business takes her to London and she's forced to run for her life, she stumbles upon not only a glamorous ballroom but also Lord Graham Wharton. What should have been a chance encounter becomes much more as Graham embarks on a search for his friend's missing sister and is convinced Kit knows more about the girl than she's telling.

After meeting Graham, Kit finds herself wishing things could have been different for the first time in her life, but what she wants can't matter. Long ago, she dedicated herself to helping women escape the same scorn that drove her from London and raising the innocent children caught in the crossfire. And as much as she desperately wishes to tell Graham everything, revealing the truth isn't worth putting him and everyone she loves in danger.

Camden's Award-Winning Drama and Romance Are a Guaranteed Reader Favorite

- "Camden is the master of historical inspirational romance."—Booklist starred review
- Camden brings a woman-in-science story with riveting courtroom drama, intriguing historical details, and captivating romance to an early 20th century East Coast setting
- "This well-plotted historical fiction will keep readers guessing to the final pages."
—Publishers Weekly on To the Farthest Shores

As a biochemist, Doctor Rosalind Werner has dedicated her life to the crusade against waterborne diseases and amid the glamor of early 1900s New York, she is at the forefront of a groundbreaking technology that will change the way water is delivered to every household in the city—if only she and her team can get people to believe in their work.

Newly appointed Commissioner of Water for New York, Nickolas Drake is highly skeptical of Rosalind and her team's techniques. When a brewing court case throws him into direct confrontation with her, he is surprised by his reaction to the lovely scientist.

While Rosalind and Nick wage a private war against their own attraction, they stand firmly on opposite sides of a battle that will impact far more than just their own lives. As the controversy grows more public and inflammatory and Rosalind becomes the target of an unknown enemy, the odds stacked against these two rivals swiftly grow more insurmountable with every passing day.

- Heartwarming novel features three orphans who grow up into an unlikely patchwork family

Many consider Evangeline Hamilton cursed. Orphaned at a young age and possessing a pair of mismatched eyes—one bright blue, the other dark brown—Eva has fought to find her way in a world that constantly rejects her. Yet the support of even one person can help overcome the world's judgments, and Eva has two—Seth and Zach, two former orphans she now counts as brothers.

Seeking justice against the man who stole his birthright and destroyed his family, Logan Fowler arrives in 1880s Pecan Gap, Texas, to confront Zach Hamilton, the hardened criminal responsible for his father's death. Only instead of finding a solitary ruthless gambler, he discovers a man not much older than himself with an unusual family. When Zach's sister, Evangeline, insists on dousing Logan with sunshine every time their paths cross, Logan finds his quest completely derailed. Who is truly responsible for his lost legacy, and will restoring the past satisfy if it means forfeiting a future with Evangeline?

- Faith and family are at the heart of this warm and touching historical romance
- "A skillful mix of tense family drama, historical romance, and memorable characters that will stay with readers."
—Library Journal on A Worthy Heart
- Offers a fascinating glimpse into high society of Toronto after WWI

In the aftermath of WWI, Grace Abernathy is determined to reunite with her family, crossing an ocean to convince her widowed sister to return home to England. Yet Toronto holds more tragedy and her nephew Christian is now in the custody of his paternal relatives, the formidable Easton family, who rejected Grace's sister because of her low social status.

Unconvinced the Eastons can be fitting caretakers, Grace jumps at the chance to be Christian's nanny and observe the family up close under an assumed name. In the course of her new position, she is shocked to discover herself falling for Andrew Easton, the boy's guardian. Unfortunately, Andrew is promised to a spoiled socialite who will make a terrible stepmother for Christian. Will Grace be able to protect her nephew . . . and her heart?

For over a century, the town of Gossamer Grove has thrived on its charm and midwestern values, but Annalise Forsythe knows painful secrets, including her own, hover just beneath the pleasant façade. When a man is found dead in his run-down trailer home, Annalise inherits the trailer, along with the pictures, vintage obituaries, and old revival posters covering its walls. As she sorts through the collection, she's wholly unprepared for the ramifications of the dark and deadly secrets she'll uncover.

A century earlier, Gossamer Grove has been stirred into chaos by the arrival of controversial and charismatic twin revivalists. The chaos takes a murderous turn when Libby Sheffield, working at her father's newspaper, receives an obituary for a reputable church deacon hours before his death. As she works with the deacon's son to unravel the mystery behind the crime, it becomes undeniably clear that a reckoning has come to town—but it isn't until another obituary arrives that they realize the true depths of the danger they've waded into.

Two women, separated by a hundred years, must uncover the secrets within the borders of their own town before it's too late and they lose their future—or their very souls.

PRAISE FOR TRACIE PETERSON

"Peterson creates believable 19th-century characters that will resonate with readers."—Publishers Weekly on Beloved Hope

"This powerful novel is realistic of the time, and great for fans of Francine Rivers."—Christian Market on Treasured Grace

"Peterson excels at painting a scene, bringing alive both the rugged frontier landscape and the people in conflict over it. . . . This is a powerful completion to an engaging, spiritually sensitive series."—Publishers Weekly starred review of Cherished Mercy

"Peterson's latest sets the bar high when it comes to all the small yet vivid details that contribute to the richness of the story. . . . An uplifting read with a sweet romance demonstrates why Peterson is such a remarkable storyteller."—RT Book Reviews on A Beauty Refined

"Peterson is a long-time fixture on Christian market bestseller lists with her more than 100 novels, and this second in the LONE STAR BRIDES series will add to her shelf of success."—Publishers Weekly on A Moment in Time

"Peterson is well known for her strong research skills that really help to set a sense of time and place to the story. Her characters are diverse, yet are all very authentic in their actions and motivations."—freshfiction.com on The Miner's Lady

The Dramatic Story of One Woman Searching for Her Family

- Book 2 of the GOLDEN GATE SECRETS series, set in atmospheric turn-of-the-century San Francisco
- Each new Peterson novel is a CBA bestseller
- Story features authentic, dramatic moments from history, including the great earthquake of 1906

Judith Gladstone came to San Francisco after her parents died to find her last living relative, an aunt she has never met. Instead she has fallen head over heels in love with Caleb Coulter, her friend's brother. Caleb has promised to help Judith find her aunt, but she can tell he thinks of her only as a friend, and she struggles to hide her feelings.

When Caleb traces Judith's aunt to the wealthy Whitley family, Judith is reunited with her long-lost relatives. The truths she learns about her past and her parents are shocking and overwhelming, however, and the more she gets to know her new family, the more danger she uncovers. Someone does not want Judith in the picture, and they will do whatever it takes to get rid of her.

Comedy and Romance Combine in Turano's Satisfying Series Conclusion

- "Turano's first APART FROM THE CROWD historical absolutely sparkles."—Publishers Weekly starred review
- USA Today bestseller Turano consistently offers a delightful, humorous take on Gilded Age romance
- "Turano's ability to tell a great story infused with humor and light-hearted banter shows through on each page."—RT Book Reviews on Behind the Scenes

Miss Temperance Flowerdew is on her way to work when a stranger suddenly grabs her off the street and sends her on a Chicago-bound train before she can figure out what happened.

When Mr. Gilbert Cavendish is called upon to rescue a missing woman, he follows the trail to Chicago only to discover that the woman is his good friend Temperance. Before they can discover who was behind the abduction, they're seen alone together by a New York society matron, putting their reputations at risk.

Gilbert is willing to propose marriage—except Temperance will have none of it. She's finally stepped out of the shadow of her relations and won't give up her independence. But when it becomes clear the misunderstanding in Chicago has escalated into a threat on her life and followed her to New York, accepting Gilbert's help in solving the mystery may lead to more than she ever could have dreamed.

Family Drama and Heartwarming Romance Set in Lancaster County

- "Gould writes in a way that feels true to life."
—RT Book Reviews
- Gould consistently hits bestseller lists with her Amish romances
- Offers a glimpse into the life of the Amish during the Civil War along with a contemporary romance

For years Marie Bachmann thought of herself as the "good" daughter. She was the most loving to their mother, the most dedicated to their Amish way of life. But when a Mennonite farmhand, Gordon Martin, shows interest in her she can't help but be flattered—until her mother sends her off to Florida. While there, Marie begins spending time with bad-boy Eli Jacob, the bishop's son from back home.

When Gordon shows up in Florida to volunteer in a homeless shelter, her life becomes even more complicated. At the same time her aunt begins telling her of a Civil War-era ancestor and the woman's uncommon bravery . . . a story that begins to work at Marie's heart.

Marie hopes returning home may simplify life, but Eli soon follows. As Marie grapples with whether she should court Eli or leave the church for Gordon, the story of Annie Bachmann shines a light on what God has for Marie's future.

Miller Excels at Bringing Unique History to Life

- "Miller's fans will enjoy this romp following the traveling chapels of yesteryear."
—Publishers Weekly on The Chapel Car Bride
- Miller blends romance with the exploration of a fascinating aspect of early 20th century Florida history
- "An enjoyable read that is perfect for a relaxing day."—RT Book Reviews on The Chapel Car Bride

Much to the dismay of her Greek family, Zanna Krykos makes a living as a lawyer in Tarpon Springs, Florida. When her friend Lucy needs legal advice about the business she inherited upon her father's passing, she ends up asking Zanna to run the business instead so she can focus on her medical career.

Nico Kalos is a Greek diver who has worked on sponging boats in the Aegean Sea since the age of 14, giving him a vast knowledge of the trade. When he hears of an opportunity to lead a group of spongers to the United States, he seizes it. But his excitement is quickly quelled when he arrives only to discover that a young woman with no experience in the business will be in charge of the new crews.

But as Zanna and Nico face even more complications than they could have imagined, they must learn to work together or risk everything they've worked so hard for.

The Rousing Conclusion to an Action-packed Series

- “Kendig has outdone herself.”
—RT Book Review on THE TOX FILES
- THE TOX FILES stories were nominated for a 2017 Inspy Award for Suspense and a 2017 Carol Award
- Tox, Ram, and the rest of the team must race to stop the Arrow & Flame Order

Dismantled centuries ago, the sword of Goliath is still rumored to thirst for its enemies' blood. Cole “Tox” Russell only wants to begin his life with Haven Cortes, but he must first complete a final mission: retrieve that sword and destroy the deadly Arrow & Flame Order.

The AFO, however, is determined to claim the sword. Wielding their father's life over Tzivia and Ram Khalon, they threaten to expose Ram's long-held and dangerous secret while demanding Tzivia locate the sword. With the Wraith team slowly being torn apart, things only worsen when Mercy Maddux, a new operative, emerges with the stunning news that the sword is tied to both Ram's secret and a string of unsolved serial murders.

Tox, Ram, and the others are forced to set aside fear and anger to focus only on the enemy. No matter the cost, Wraith must stop or take the enemy down with them.
